After Being Brutally Clubbed He Was Placed Under Arrest.

Balled Out and Now Sild to Be Dying at His Home.

LONG ISLAND CITY, May 29.-Ex-Water and Fire Commissioner Patrick Downey, of this city, is in a critical condition at his home, 106 Third street, Hunter's Point, from what is supposed be a compound fracture of the skull.

Mr. Downey is the head watchman of the Long Island City and Newtown Railroad Company. He is also the confidential man of ex-Mayor Gleason. He is also the Shortly before midnight last night John Rooney, an employee of Livery plained to Downey that Detective Owen J. Kavanagh was abusing him without cause. Kayanagh and Rooney were at the time standing at the door of Gleason's railroad office.

Downey remonstrated with the detective for interfering with Rooney, whereupon Kavanagh applied several epi-

"There is too much funny business entirely going on here, and you must know something about it." said the detective to Watchman Downey.

Downey argued that nothing wrong could go on around the premises while he was night watchman. Kayanagh called him a liar and struck him over the left temple with a metal-knobbed umbrella handle, at the same time shouting: "I'll kill you now or die."

Downey caught hold of the umbrella began shouting for assistance, and Kavanagh reached to his hip pocket and drew a large blackjack, with which he struck Downey on the head, smashing his hat and tearing open his head in several places rerai places.

gling to his feet Kavanagh dealt him another blow with the blackjack over the lead and knockel him against the plate glass door leading to the cashler's office. Blood spurted from this wound and formed pools around the floor.

Justice Kavanagh, a brother of the detective, arrived at the scene of conflict and gave the detective a hint to put Downey under arrest. Downey appealed to the Justice to take the blackjack away from his assailant, but his request was unheeded. Jack away from his assailant, but his request was unheeded.
Downey then took hold of the blackjack and accompanied the detective to the Second Precinct station-house, where he told the Sergeant that if he had not grasped the weapon Kavanagh would have undoubtedly killed him on the way. Downey, covered with blood, was then locked up in a cell.

release, and he was taken to his home in a carriage.

This is not the first time Kavanagh has been in trouble. Under Mayor Debevoise's administration he was accused of extorting money from the keepers of piggeries in Hunter's Point. The Grand Jury Indicted him, and he resigned from the police force rather than stand trial.

His next appearance in official life was in the role of Captain of the Rockaway Beach Police. When James Norton was elected Sheriff of Queens County two years ago several complaints ton was elected Sheriff of Queens County two years ago several complaints of blackmailing were made to him against Kavanagh, and he refused to reappoint him.
